About the Speaker:
Professor Chin-Lien Wang is the convener of Service-Learning course of the Department of Physical Education of Fu Jen Catholic University, and also the coach of the Fu Jen Women’s Basketball Team. She had been taking up several courses in her 30 years of teaching career, such as Physical Education, Principle of Physical Education, The Applied Terms of Physical Education, Professional Ethics-Physical Education Ethics, Service and Learning, The First Year in the University, Basic Sports English, etc. Inspired by those experiences, she deeply believes that the joy comes from “learning by doing” especially in the 21st century. She finds that it is a great opportunity to join the big family, and she starts to explore something new and enlarge the vision beyond the field with her students that “Service-Learning” has been giving her the best reward of her ordinary life with full of happiness.
